Danish Academic Economists in North America

DAEiNA Meeting 2014 – Invitation and Call for Papers

The 3rd annual meeting of Danish Academic Economists in North America (DAEiNA) will be held on May 24, 2014 at Duke University, Durham, NC.

The meeting will consist of presentations, a plenum discussion on the future of DAEiNA and networking opportunities over food and drinks.

To request a presentation slot please submit a paper or abstract to daeina@daeina.net before April 1, 2014. We encourage the presentation of preliminary work, particularly from PhD students. In allocating slots, particular preference will also be given to PhD students who are about to go on the academic job market.

In addition to requests for presentation slots, we also ask all interested DAEiNA members to submit a non-binding expression of interest to daeina@daeina.net as soon as possible in order to facilitate coordination of rooms as well as catering.

DAEiNA is still in the process of applying for funds to cover travel and hotel costs for a small number of people; however, participants are strongly encouraged to seek funds on their own. For students in particular, signing up to present at the meetings may be a good way of securing travel funding from their home institution.

If you need hotel accommodation in Durham, Tim Bollerslev can reserve a room at a favorable rate within walking distance of Duke University. More specific information will be forwarded to those who request assistance with lodging for Friday and/or Saturday night at daeina@daeina.net.

For more information regarding DAEiNA and our activities visit our website at <http://www.daeina.net>.

Regards from the DAEiNA Board:

Tim Bollerslev, Professor, Department of Economics, Duke University

Rasmus Jørgensen, Postdoc, University of Copenhagen

Christian G. Lund, PhD Candidate, Northwestern University
